Re: In re Dealer Management Systems Antitrust Litig., MDL No. 2817, Case No. 18-CV-864 (N.D. Ill.)

Dear Counsel:

It has come to our attention that certain documents protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product doctrine have been inadvertently produced to Plaintiffs in this matter ("Disclosed Protected Information"). These documents are identified in Schedule A, attached hereto.

Pursuant to Paragraph 13(b) of the Agreed Confidentiality Order (Dkt. 104), we hereby request that Plaintiffs (i) return or destroy all copies of the Disclosed Protected Information, and (ii) provide a certification of counsel that all of the Disclosed Protected Information has been returned or destroyed. We note that certain of the documents identified in Schedule A are only partially privileged, and therefore, CDK will be producing replacement versions of these documents with appropriate redactions. We will make that production to you within the next few business days. With respect to those documents, we are amenable to tolling Plaintiffs' period to contest their privileged status under Paragraph 13(c) until ten business days following its receipt of replacement versions of the documents containing redactions.

As you will see, a number of the documents identified on Schedule A have been produced to the Federal Trade Commission. We confirm that the FTC has been notified of the inadvertent production of these documents and has been asked to destroy or return them.

Additionally, CDK has identified certain additional documents that it believes may contain Disclosed Protected Information. These documents are identified in Schedule B, attached hereto. CDK will agree that it will not request that Plaintiffs return or destroy all copies of these documents pursuant to Paragraph 13 of the Agreed Confidentiality Order if Plaintiffs agree to the following: CDK's decision to forgo clawback of the documents in Schedule B does not amount to any waiver of the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product doctrine of the subject matters referenced in the documents. This offer is contingent on CDK securing a similar agreement from the Federal Trade Commission and state Attorneys General that also received these documents. Please let us know if we have agreement.

Further, CDK has identified certain documents that it has determined were inadvertently withheld or redacted for privilege that do not contain privilege content and/or should have contained lesser redactions. These documents are identified in Schedule C, attached hereto. CDK will produce an overlay volume containing replacement images for these documents within the next few business days.

We look forward to your response regarding the issues noted above, and are available to discuss them further, as necessary.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jessica A. Michaels
